Welcome to Fashion 101, the blog for creative fashion designers. Do you want to become a famous designer? This is the blog to publish your work. We have millions of viewers, including celebrities. What are you waiting for? Read about some of our top designers.

Hi! I love traditional materials for skirts and dresses: cotton, wool, silk. They are absolutely elegant. I usually create in the morning, right after I get up, at about 11 or 12. I think that is the best time for me. Sometimes I work for 4 or 5 hours, and I am late for my obligations. I am a teacher at the Lavender Design School. In the evening, I usually go out with friends to fancy restaurants and pubs, and I wear my creations. People like them, I think. Maddison

My friends tell me I am the best and youngest designer in the world. I go red in the face when they say that. They're great friends, they wear everything I make. I love to give them my creations. Sometimes I think they're a bit shocked at some of my designs, but, anyway, they put them on and go out. Not to work, obviously, but when they go to the pub or dancing. I think they prefer my leather creations. Some of my friends say that leather trousers are comfortable. David

Hello! I'm an architect, but I am working as a fashion designer. I like creating unusual clothes. Sometimes I use regular materials, but I combine the patterns. One of my favourite creations is a flowery cotton shirt with striped sleeves. What makes it perfect is the combination of colours. Shoes are not my thing; I usually wear traditional leather boots when it's cold and sandals when it's warm or hot. I want to open my own boutique, be a designer for TV and cinema and host my own TV show. Ivonne

Hello! I love creating clothes for myself, for my friends and for clients. They are all very happy with my creations. I love combining materials and patterns. And of course I also combine colours, except for black and white. That's for old people. My clients love me because I always keep my promises in connection with dates. Do you want a dress for the end of May? You got it! Do you want a special leather suit in two months' time? You got it. If I cannot make it on time, I tell them from the very beginning, so, no surprises. Richard
