Let's meet Alex and Charlie Watkins. They're twin brothers.

Reporter: Well, tell us about your life.

Alex: We love sports. I play them, and Charlie watches them on TV or at the club.

Charlie: Yes, I prefer to watch sports and eat and drink in front of the TV. Fast food is my favourite.

Alex: That's terrible! I eat differently, vegetables and fruit, chicken and fish. No fast food ..., well, maybe at weekends.

Reporter: What time do you get up?

Charlie: Late! And I study in bed with a cup of hot chocolate and some biscuits.

Alex: Yes, he does ... I don't. I get up early, have a shower and eat a big breakfast. It's a very important meal.

Charlie: But we have lunch together. Mum cooks. Chicken or fish and salad.

Alex: My favourite lunch.

Reporter: What about the afternoon?

Alex: I practise at the club, and in the evening I go to Medical school. No TV.

Charlie: I work at the office. Dad's office. In the evening I also go to school, but I study architecture. TV? Yes, of course!
